COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

The special town meeting will be Monday Oct. 18 at 8:00 p. m. The complete warrant for the special town meeting is printed in this edition of the Citizen. There are six articles and each should be carefully studied. The business at a special town meeting is just as important as the business at the annual town meeting. I certainly hope that every citizen is interested in the meeting and I hope that every interested citizen attends the meeting.

The highway department has started to put up the salted sand for winter ice control. The stockpiling of winter sand is a little earlier than usual but there are some extra fall jobs that must be done after the sand is put up.

A manhole was installed on Elm Street this past week. The section of sewer line that can be serviced from the manhole has bothered several times in past years. There are plans for the installation of two more manholes after the winter sand is put up.

Payments of 1965 taxes through the first week of October were $65,117.61. This is very favorable when compared with the fact that the tax bills were not mailed until the second week of October in 1964. The number of partial payments continues at a high rate but at the same time some of the larger taxpayers have paid their taxes in full. The amount paid to date represents about 25% of the total commitment.

I would again like to urge everyone to familiarize themselves with the articles for the special town meeting and I would like to see a large attendance at the meeting on Monday evening.

WOODLAND OWNERS DISCUSS PROBLEMS AT CONFERENCE

Recruitment, development of a better image of on-the-job training and mechanization were some of the suggestions for improvement in the northeastern woods labor situation made at a conference held at Bethel Inn this week.

More than 100 woodland owners and personnel, members of the Northeastern Technical Committee of the American Pulpwood Association discussed problems facing their industry.

John T. Maines, vice president, woodlands, Great Northern Paper Co., was moderator of the afternoon panel on Tuesday on the rapidly worsening woods labor problem.

Panelists were Stephen Kalen, U. S. Dept. of Labor training supervisor, Portland; Morton Gribben, Department of Employment Security, Maine; Thomas Karlén of Waterville, personnel manager of the Scott Paper Co., and Frank Pierson of Calais, of the American Pulpwood Association.

Maines said the custom of Canadian woods labor in Maine is as old as the state's logging industry. He said increased industrial facility in Quebec is making labor in their own country more attractive. In addition, restrictions placed by the United States on out-of-country labor create a situation which has to be faced and acted upon.

Referring to mechanization, Maines said his company will soon be trying a machine which fells and trims trees at a rate sufficient to replace production volume of at least five men. In Canada, these machines are being utilized on three shifts, he said. He pointed out that they are only a partial solution to the problem and the machines are not suited to all terrain.

Earlier in the day, the group was brought up to date on activities at Northeast Experiment Station in Bangor by Forester A. C. Hart.

Dr. Thomas Corcoran of the University of Maine discussed Application of Operations Research to logging. Bradford Wellman, representing the Pine Tree Heirs, spoke on the legal and moral responsibility of the land owners to the public.

B. B. Garland of Waterville, chairman of the committee, presided with Donald Fwan, forest engineer for the northeastern region, APA, in charge of arrangements.

The conference, at which 18 companies in New England and New York, were represented ended Wednesday morning.

A group from the Methodist Church will be attending a study course at the Auburn Methodist Church Friday through the week end. Those attending Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stevens, Rev. Donald Hoss, Mrs. Muriel Ratters and Richard Davis.

FARMERS ASKED TO SEND IN SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBERS

Farmers who are receiving payments in connection with farm-action programs are being asked to let the ASOS County Office know what their Social Security numbers are.

According to William C. Chapman, chairman, Oxford County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, a form requesting this information "request for Identification Number - Farmer" together with a postage prepaid envelope, has been mailed to each known producer who receives program payments to be filled in and returned to the ASOS County Office as soon as possible.

He explained that, beginning January 1, 1966, the identifying Social Security numbers will be entered on payment drafts to producers, and they will also be used by the Department of Agriculture in reporting such payments to the Internal Revenue Service. Such identifying numbers now appear on all reports of income payments, such as bank interest dividends, etc. made by the paying companies or agencies. This is required under the Internal Revenue Code.

Any questions about this matter should be taken up with the ASOS County Committee.

Ranita Eames was at home over the week end from Gorham State College.

MAINE MINIMUM WAGE LAW INCREASES IN EFFECT OCTOBER 15

Friday, October 15, is the date on which the Maine minimum wage rate increases from $1.00 to $1.15 an hour for establishments which employ four or more persons, and also the effective date of the new requirement for payment of 1 1/2 times the regular hourly rate of pay after 48 hours.

The $1.15 rate will apply to all types of establishments except agriculture, domestic work, public-supported nonprofit organizations, fishing, small telephone exchanges, municipal, county, state and Federal governments, nursing homes and hospitals. In addition, there are exceptions for certain types of workers within covered establishments, such as waiters, waitresses, car hops, doormen, bell hops, chambermaids in resort establishments, outside salesmen, taxicab drivers, counselors in children's camps, students under 19 years of age who do not replace regular employees, home-workers, dependent members of the employer's family, and bona fide executive, administrative or professional personnel.

This rate will be in effect for one year. It increases on October 15, 1966, to $1.25 an hour.

The overtime provisions will apply to the same categories of workers as the $1.15 rate except the processing of sardines and other perishable food products, which are exempt from the overtime provisions. The overtime is based on the employee's regular hourly rate of pay and salaried employees are subject to the overtime provisions unless they are in one of the exempt categories.

Nursing homes and hospitals will come under the minimum wage law also on October 15, but at the rate of $1.00 an hour and without any requirement for premium pay for overtime. Nonprofit nursing homes and hospitals are included in the coverage. The rate will increase on October 15, 1966, to $1.15 and a year later to $1.25 an hour.

Members of municipal fire fighting departments, other than volunteer or call departments will come under the minimum wage law at a later date. May 1, 1966 at $1.15 an hour without premium pay for overtime.

Posters and informational material are available on request from the Department of Labor and Industry, State House, Augusta.

INTERESTED CITIZENS HEAR TALK ON SCHOOL NEEDS

Members of the board of directors of School Administrative District 44, teachers in the District, members of the Advisory Committee and interested citizens were privileged to hear Dr. Carl Porter-Shirley of the University of Maine faculty speak on the needs for a modern secondary school program. He emphasized the need to prepare for citizenship and to develop salable skills. He pointed out that a school must have a broad, well-balanced program to challenge and meet the requirements of all pupils from grades seven through twelve. The most favorable size school is in the vicinity of 800 pupils which is the number District 44 will have in a six-year program.

The Building Committee met with representatives of Wadsworth and Boston, architects, on Wednesday to inspect available locations for the new school and to discuss preliminary plans.

On Saturday, the directors will visit the high school at Yarmouth on an inspection tour.

TO SEEK FORMATION OF COUNTY MUNICIPAL ASSN. AT MEETING ON TUESDAY

For some time there has been a feeling among many Oxford County officials that there is a need for a county association. In Somerset and Washington counties this plan has worked very favorably and has resulted in a united effort and cooperation in many matters. The purpose of the organization, which is non-political, is to promote the application of best methods in all branches of municipal services by the exchange of ideas, etc.

Municipal officials of Oxford County are urged to attend a meeting of municipal officials to be held at Bethel, in Odeon Hall on October 19 at 7:30 p. m. for the purpose of discussing the possibility of forming such an organization.

CUB SCOUTS

Cub Scout Pack 566 now has 25 Cubs. The theme for October is Magic Words for Halloween. It is possible to follow these themes set up by the Pine Tree Council only through the cooperation of the Cub's parents—not only with the boys, but with the leaders. Unless more mothers are willing to be Den Mothers, several boys will not be able to take part in the program. The limit to a den is six boys—we now have three den mothers!

STATE POLICE WARN OF DROWSINESS IN WINTER DRIVING

"One of the dangers of the approaching cold weather season is drowsiness caused by carbon monoxide poisoning," the State Police emphasize.

"Carbon monoxide is a colorless, odorless poison which is capable of causing unconsciousness and death, when present in the air in even low concentration," the police point out.

"A number of accidental deaths of this type occur each year, most of them in late fall and early winter," the enforcement group warns. They listed some precautions which should always be observed:

1. When starting your car in a garage, be sure you open the garage doors before you start the motor.

2. If your car has a leaky manifold, exhaust pipe or muffler, have it checked. Replace it, if necessary to prevent a tragedy.

3. Always have at least one window in the car open a bit when you drive.

4. If you start to feel drowsy and sleepy when driving, stop before it is too late. Remember, this poison is an insidious thing which is extremely dangerous. If you suspect the presence of monoxide fumes, open the car windows and stop at the first service station or garage for a complete check of the exhaust system.

Graciousness is a virtue many people mistake for weakness.

FUTURE PROJECTS AT MEETING LOCAL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Town affairs and a look at future projects filled the program at the first meeting of the Greater Bethel Chamber of Commerce Tuesday evening, October 5.

Burdick Pierce, president, reported the executive committee recommended sponsoring a winter carnival again this season, and will start organizing committees in the near future.

To be explored are affiliation with the U. S. Chamber, and a service of the "welcome wagon" type.

Alvin Barth reported the chamber had an exhibit at Maine Publicity Bureau, Kittery, for several weeks. Murray Thurston said the group will also be able to participate in the New England Ski Show in Boston next month.

Town Manager Michael Houlahan led off the open forum discussion on town affairs, reporting good progress on the fire station building which is now sufficiently completed to house fire vehicles.

Word is still pending as to when the comprehensive planning study will be done by an old town firm. Town action toward this was initiated last spring.

Waste disposal study has been delayed, according to the chairman James Hutchins, because of no federal funds available to the agency from which the town authorized selection to get an interest-free loan.

Roland Glines and Theodore Chadbourne, directors of SAD 44, reported to the chamber members regarding operating activity, and progress on the new high school.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Once again death has entered our ranks and taken from our midst Brother Harlan Kimball, a faithful and respected member and worker of our order, and while we mourn the loss of a loyal member, we are rejoiced at his freedom from suffering and his entrance into a higher life where sorrows and sorrows are no more.

Resolved: Be it Resolved: That these resolutions be inscribed on our records that a copy be sent to the family of our Brother, and one sent to the Oxford County Citizen for publication and our Charter be draped in mourning for thirty days.
